A Word of Thanks To Our Advertisers

This commemorative ad booklet is made up of advertisements and greetings from businesses and organizations in and around York Township.

Because of the generosity of our advertisers, we are able to finance campaigns, organize activities for the Democratic Party, and press for the implementation of Democratic principles on local government. This year we are working to strengthen and grow our township organization and to prepare for the 2011 general elections.

We appreciate the interest in the York Township Democratic Organization taken by these local businesses and groups. We urge you to take an interest in them as well. Patronize them, thank them for their support, and let them know you saw their ad in this booklet.

Thank you,
Carol B. Davis

Best wishes and Happy St. Patrick's Day to the

York Township Democratic Organization

Honored Guest Speaker

Dan Kotowski

Illinois State Senator

"In the three years that I have been in the Senate I have been committed to ending waste, fraud, corruption, and mismanagement in state government....The people of Illinois deserve no less."

Dan Kotowski is the State Senator from Illinois' 33rd district. This northwest suburban Cook County district had been under longtime Republican control, with no Democrat at all running for it in 2002. In 2006, Dan Kotowski challenged Republican Cheryl Axley who had recently been appointed to the seat, and won narrowly. In 2008, Kotowski was re-elected to his seat with nearly sixty percent of the vote.

In the State Senate, Kotowski has been a leader fighting for veterans funding, insurance reform, governmental transparency, and sensible gun laws. Considered a likely future candidate for statewide office, Kotowski is clearly a rising star within Illinois government and the Democratic Party.

Honored Guest Speaker

Roberta Lynch

Deputy Director of AFSCME Council 31

"The Koch brothers are determined to have world without unions where people are left defenseless and working people have no voice. We must stand united."

Roberta Lynch came to Council 31 after serving as Research Director of the Chicago Area Committee on Occupational Safety and Health. Her first post with the Council was a Public Policy Director, a position she assumed in 1984. She became Deputy Director in 1993. Lynch's career has been dedicated to the rights of working people, to equal opportunity, and to economic justice. A Philadelphia native, she is a graduate of Duquesne University and was previously involved in a number of community and political organizing efforts. She is also the co-author of Rusted Dreams: Hard Times in a Steel Community, which chronicles the decline of the steel industry in Southeast Chicago.

"Whether you are a member of a labor union or not, we are all members of the labor movement now," said Lynch. "We know that cooperation is the best way to solve problems, and we're ready to cooperate, but we're not ready to lie down and be anybody's doormat."

Darwin McBeth Walton

Recipient of Jane Heckman Award

Darwin McBeth Walton believes that ordinary people can do extraordinary things. She has been called a pathfinder in the field of education and a social activist for most of her career. She was elected Outstanding Woman Leader in the field of Racial Justice in DuPage County in 1998. As a long-time presenter in the Author in the Schools program and the Open Book after-school program in inner city Chicago, Walton frequently speaks at classrooms and libraries throughout the Chicago Metropolitan area. Since 1978 Walton has designed and facilitated five courses in teacher education for National-Louis University. In 2003 she was honored with the Distinguished Alumni Humanitarian Award at NLU.

Walton brings twenty-five years of public School teaching experience to her writing for children, and is dedicated to the belief that acceptance is the first law of teaching and learning. Her landmark book, What Color Are You? Published by Johnson Publishing Co., is celebrating its 30th year, was one of the first books about America's diversity to be used in public schools. Much of Walton's writing is about acceptance and inclusion in the multi-cultural and diverse society in which our children are growing up today. She has published over 30 books while actively fighting for inclusion and economic justice in her own special way based on creativity, determination, and a love for others that is truly unique.

Thanks to our three Democratic County Board Members!
Dirk Enger, Rita Gonzalez and Tony Michelassi

We are 100% behind you!
And so proud of your representation!

Food for the Soul: Quotes of John F. Kennedy The first Irish-American Catholic President Elect

I look forward to a great future for America - a future in which our country will match its military strength with our moral restraint, its wealth with our wisdom, its power with our purpose.

John F. Kennedy

If a free society cannot help the many who are poor, it cannot save the few who are rich.

John F. Kennedy

If we cannot now end our differences, at least we can help make the world safe for diversity.

John F. Kennedy

Modern cynics and skeptics... see no harm in paying those to whom they entrust the minds of their children a smaller wage than is paid to those to whom they entrust the care of their plumbing.

John F. Kennedy

Let us never negotiate out of fear. But let us never fear to negotiate.

John F. Kennedy

Our progress as a nation can be no swifter than our progress in education. The human mind is our fundamental resource.

John F. Kennedy

The great enemy of the truth is very often not the lie, deliberate, contrived and dishonest, but the myth, persistent, persuasive and unrealistic.

John F. Kennedy

Tolerance implies no lack of commitment to one's own beliefs. Rather it condemns the oppression or persecution of others.

John F. Kennedy

Too often we... enjoy the comfort of opinion without the discomfort of thought.

John F. Kennedy

There are risks and costs to action. But they are far less than the long range risks of comfortable inaction.

John F. Kennedy

We believe that if men have the talent to invent new machines that put men out of work, they have the talent to put those men back to work.

John F. Kennedy

And so, my fellow Americans, ask not what your country can do for you; ask what you can do for your country.

John F. Kennedy
